

Literacy

Synthetic phonics using Read Write Inc Phonics scheme. Phonics for segmenting, blending and decoding.
Capital letters and full stops. Features of narrative and poetry. Handwriting.
Spellings. Guided reading. Daily reading.

Science

Gases around us-exploring different gases and their uses. Changing state - reversible changes ice-water-steam. Practical work - factors affecting evaporation.

History

How the Tudors came to power. What a king did all day. Henry VIII and his six wives. Why did he marry so many times?

Personal, Social and Health Education - PSHE

Using the SEAL and SULP schemes of work to discuss classroom and school rules, and to learn ways to resolve disagreements calmly.

Special Events

17th September Horrible Histories
Orchard Theatre
Christmas Activities

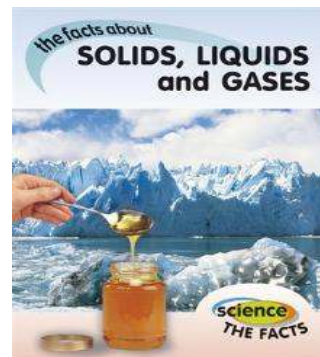

Music

Learning to sing various action, skipping and ball games. Learning to clap and play simple rhythms.

French

Numbers 1-10, greetings
Body parts, the weather

Autumn Term 2009 Saturn Class

PE

Swimming with Year 4 or fitness and Flexibility circuits with Year 4,

RE

What do we find in a local community?
Special journeys and pilgrimages.

Geography

Investigating a local issue-what should a High Street be like? Gathering information from a walk to Dartford High Street and questionnaires to draw conclusions.

Numeracy

Investigating 2-D and 3-D shapes. They will be measuring length in cms. Telling the time in analogue and digital forms. Collecting information and using it to make charts and graphs. Introducing place value and properties of number. Using +, -, x and ÷ and their related vocabulary to solve word problems.

Art/DT

Looking at grouping objects for a still life painting and learning water colour and drawing techniques. Making containers from different materials including clay.

ICT

Writing for different audiences-exploring keyboard, simple word processing. Repeating patterns- using a graphics programme to design Christmas wrapping paper.

Social Use of Language Programme - SULP

Learning to use language to communicate effectively with each other through games and role play.