

Literacy

Children work in ability groups.
Synthetic phonics using Read Write Inc scheme. Phonics for segmenting, blending and decoding.
Features of a variety of different genres.
Handwriting. Spellings. Daily reading.

History

Tudors - Life in towns and countryside, children and education, rich and poor.
Tudor Dartford.
Elizabeth I and Tudor explorers.
Visit to Hall Place

Numeracy

Children work in ability groups.
Properties of 2-D and 3-D shapes.
Weighing and calculating with metric units.
Making right angle turns.
Collecting information and using it to make charts and graphs. Beginning to read the time. Simple fractions.
Extending ideas of place value and properties of number.
Using appropriate operations to solve word problems.

P.E.

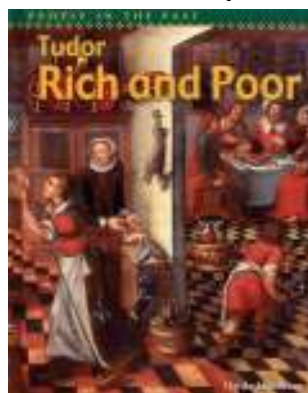

Gym - developing and recording sequences. Golf
Tudor dance
Short tennis and football

Music

Exploring musical arrangements
Exploring the 5 note pentatonic scale to create a melody

Saturn Class Spring Term 2010

Tudor Life

French

Body parts and weather.
Items of clothing and colours.

Personal, Social and Health Education

Using the SEAL scheme of work to discuss classroom and school rules, and to learn ways to resolve disagreements calmly.

Science

Changing Sounds - Changing the pitch and volume. Investigating sound insulation.
Life Cycles- Looking at the life cycles of plants, frogs, butterflies and human beings.

Design Technology

Designing and making a simple musical instrument from found materials.

Religious Education

Religious buildings and worship in Judaism and Islam.
Investigating the ways birth and death are marked in different religions.
The Festival of Easter

I.C.T

Creating and searching a branching databases: collecting and presenting information in a variety of charts and graphs

Art

Textiles. Collage based on Tudor designs using fabrics and other materials

Social Use of Language Programme

Learning to use language to communicate effectively with each other through games and role play.